If you're after a compact SUV that's smart, economical, and genuinely easy to live with, this 2022 Hyundai Venue Elite is a standout. Modern in design and nimble around town, it's perfectly suited to Kiwi roads, tight parking, and daily commuting.

With just 23,700kms, this Venue has been exceptionally well presented by its previous owner and is in almost new-like condition, both inside and out. It drives tight and smooth, clearly reflecting the care it's received, and offers excellent peace of mind for its next owner.

The Elite trim adds extra comfort, safety, and technology, making every drive feel more refined. What really sets this Venue apart is how well it balances SUV practicality with car-like ease of driving – higher seating position and excellent visibility without the bulk or fuel costs of a larger SUV.
